

CARROL FORBES FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP BACKGROUND, ELIGIBILITY AND CRITERIA

Background:

The Carrol Forbes Foundation, established in 1995 in memory of ISC Founder Carrol Forbes (1909-1982), has approved funding for the ISC Scholarship program with funding originating from the annual earnings of the Foundation.

Eligibility:

Applicants for a scholarship may be any softball player who has participated in an ISC Youth Development sanctioned tournament or event, has completed their secondary/high school education and are continuing their academic career at a recognized post-secondary institution.

Criteria:

The recipient will be chosen based on applicants' responses to their academic plans and career ambitions, their commitment to softball and letters from school and softball references.

Timing Application deadline, via e-mail to csmith2@elp.rr.com, is November 15. Applications will be reviewed by the Carrol Forbes Foundation Scholarship Selection Committee before the end of the year, and the recipient will be informed. Scholarship payment will be provided early the following year.
