

Cleo Goyette, Long Beach, CA

Cleo Goyette began his softball career with the Mary All-Stars, in San Pedro, California in 1951. He was a part of three National Softball Congress Championship teams and was named tournament MVP in 1953. Mr. Goyette joined the Long Beach Nitehawks in the mid 1950's and went on to win six International Softball Congress World Titles. He earned All-World honors from 1952 through 1961 and again in 1963. From 1953-1957, he was named to the All-World teams in both the NSC and the ISL, so he's been All World 16 times. Considerd the best second baseman in the history of the game, Cleo was inducted into the ISC Hall of Fame in 1971. Goyette is considered as one of the top five players to ever play the game of fastpitch softball and the ISC MVP Award is named in his honor.