

Marv Casteel, Ogden, UT

Marv Casteel was one of Utah's top flight sports boosters and was a founding member of the NSC in 1947. He served for 42 years in the ISC in various roles including commissioner and vice-president before retiring in 1988. The trophy annually awarded to the ISC World Tournament's second-place team is named in his honor.