

Bob Walsh, Bethlehem, PA

Bob Walsh was the largest supporter and organizer of men's fastpitch softball for over 25 years in the Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania area. He was internationally renowned as an umpire and softball expert through ISC. Walsh, who lived in Bethlehem, PA was a member in fastpitch softball's "inner circle." For years, Walsh was also an administrator and served as an Eastern vice president for the International Softball Congress and was instrumental in bringing the ISC to Allentown, PA in 1984. After his untimely death, the annual Bob Walsh Memorial Classic was held for several years in Allentown. He was the first umpire inducted in the ISC Hall of Fame in 1985.
