

Chad Corcoran, Seattle, WA

A member of the Camarillo Kings teams from southern California that won two straight ISC World Tournaments in 1981 and 1982, Chad then moved to the Seattle teams that were three-times ISC World Champions in 1984, 85 and 90. Highly regarded as one of the best defensive players in the game, Chad was also a top hitter, leading the ISC with a .611 batting average in 1986. He was named to six All World teams during the 1980s.
