

Chris DeLarwelle – Denmark WI

From his first steps in Forestville, WI, Chris DeLarwelle, born August 13, 1967, was active and athletic. While playing as a three-sport athlete with the Eagles of Southern Door High School in Brussels WI, baseball was his focus. He played at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh where as a member of the Titans from 1987-90 he earned Division III Player of the Year honors in 1990 and was a two-time First Team NCAA Division III All-American in 1989-90. With his obvious elite baseball skills, Chris spent three years in the Minnesota Twins minor league system.

In 1993, having never played fastpitch, Chris joined the Denmark, WI Dukes where he enjoyed four seasons. In 1997, Rod Peterson recruited Chris for The Farm Tavern team where he won ISC titles in 1997 and 1999. With The Farm, Chris was First Team All World in 1998, sandwiched around Second Team All World nominations in 1997 and 1999.

In 2002, Chris joined good friend Darren Derricks and the Circle Tap squad, finishing top four in the ISC back-to-back in 2003-04. Chris again earned First Team All-World accolades in 2003, 2004 and 2008. Following a brief retirement, Chris returned to Circle Tap as a veteran contributor in 2012 and 2013. Chris' distinguished

ISC career spanned 21 seasons during which he claimed a spot with Team USA from 1999 to 2009 winning a Pan Am silver medal in 1999 and an ISF bronze medal in 2000.
