

Paul Magan, Tauranga, NZ

Paul Magan, who was originally from Tauranga, played softball for New Zealand during the 1980s. He also played in Bakersfield, California, before getting the opportunity to play in Sioux City with the famed Penn Corp team. Magan was named to five ISC All World teams between 1979 and 1990 and twice won the Most Outstanding Pitcher Award in 1982 and 1989. Tragically, he died in a car accident with teammate Steve Schultz after the 1990 season.
